Some experiences are immeasurable by time or money. Make the time and invest in yourself. This retreat is an experience that will enrich your life on every level.

“Now I’m 100% Committed to Coaching”

I completely recommend the TCA Live Retreat. I have done MANY workshops and retreats. Eve puts it all together into a beautiful marriage of mind body and spirit. Her holistic approach addressed dealing with blocks as well as the concrete tasks of putting together our coaching packages. She used all kinds of processes to bring out our creative power.

Before the retreat, I was very excited but also overwhelmed with how to offer my coaching. Now I am committed 100% to coaching and am ready to really ‘do it’ – I’ve been conceptualizing for too long so the TCA Retreat has been wonderfully liberating and energizing!

“Priceless...Wealth of Wonderful People”

The TCA Live Retreat gave me hope for a future career that would be rich, satisfying and financially beneficial. The wealth of wonderful people who all support and come to love one another is priceless. The joy of community shared with my tribe is immeasurable. The benefits will live on long beyond this great weekend.

Eve was generous in her knowledge and expertise and really knew where to focus in on an individual's struggles to help overcome them. I really appreciated the deep breathing work that we focused on.

“Know In My Heart I Can Begin NOW”

Before attending TCA Live Retreat I didn't believe I was 100% ready yet to coach women one on one. That has now changed and I know in my heart that I am doing my future clients a disservice by waiting and I can begin NOW to support and share with women the tools to move them forward in life so they too can be at ease with all that life sends their way!

“Inspired & Empowered”

Participating at the TCA Live Retreat has inspired me to get back on track with my coaching career. Eve has created a remarkable and safe environment for us in a gorgeous setting...I am feeling inspired and empowered to go home and begin working on my coaching business again.

I highly recommend this retreat...You will feel supported by Eve and a great group of coaches. You will have the opportunity to practice discovery sessions and TCA processes, as well as experience empowering visualizations for your own self-growth.

I am especially thrilled to have put together my “low cost workshop” to introduce my coaching work to my local community! You will love the connection you will make with like-minded people who will hold your back as you take your stand in being the amazing coach you are meant to be.

“Helped Increase My Coaching Confidence”

The TCA Live Retreat has been a great time to connect with myself, the other participants and receive special support from Eve.

Before the retreat, I was running out of time to concentrate on my business and felt pulled in all directions. By the end of the retreat I felt calmer and inspired. I recommend it to others because it gives you more inspiration, a safe place to practice, allows time for reflection and additional time for Eve to share her expertise with us.

Practicing coaching live during the retreat one on one is a real added value and helped me increase my confidence in coaching.

“An Enormous Gift”

Working with Eve and the TCA community at this retreat has been an enormous gift. I came feeling a bit stuck and hopeless about continuing to work on my coaching business, and feeling very exhausted from being a new mother. Eve’s loving nature and truly amazing knowledge and skills, combined with one of the most amazing communities of people I’ve ever met helped me get back to my center, heal, feel hope and restoration, and find energy and direction to take my next step.

Thank you Eve!

Florencia Fuensalida Washington, DC

“Gave Me Clarity & Vision”

This retreat helped give me clarity for my coaching vision and made my goals seem much more accessible. Eve presents a wonderful balance of self-introspection exercises, coaching skills and practical techniques for building your business. Not only is Eve a wonderful instructor, but the community in this retreat weekend is supportive, encouraging and caring – a fantastic network as you begin your own new adventure in coaching.

“Benefited More Than I Could Have Imagined”

The TCA Live Retreat felt like a gift being offered just for me and I am so glad I accepted it. I have benefited more than I could have imagined. I would absolutely recommend this retreat to others!! This invaluable uplifting intensive cuts to the heart of our fears around being coaches. Had I not joined the retreat, I would have missed out on a year's worth of Inspiration and guidance!

Suddenly you are face to face with the spirit of each person who has come here to liberate themselves and each other. Lifelong friendships formed. It is very safe and easy. Eve's training and processes at the retreat dig deeper and directly to the core of the work that is covered in the program.

Because of the retreat, I am exactly where I am supposed to be. It is liberating and affirming, and it has been a lesson in self-care and honoring the soul!

“Best Thing I've Done For Myself!”

Coming to the Transform Coaching Academy Live Retreat has been the best thing I have done for myself in a very long time. What a gift. I am already looking forward to Eve's TCA Retreat next year. It is not to be missed!

It was the perfect mix of skills practice, business building and healing work in a beautiful and supportive setting. Eve is a truly special woman with extraordinary knowledge, intuition, compassion and dedication to healing others.

“Honestly Transformational, Supportive & Nurturing”

I would recommend this retreat because it is honestly transformational, supportive and so incredibly nurturing. It also greatly deepened my understanding of the coaching processes while increasing my commitment to getting started on my coaching path. It was extremely helpful to have the other students here to ask questions pertaining to their experiences.

There was a lot of synchronicity and what I consider to be signs that I am on my true path. During the retreat, something big shifted for me. After the first day of the retreat, I woke up very early and journaled. It was like my old, negative tapes had finally stopped playing. I felt on my game, ready to commit, confident and beautiful.

“Extremely Empowering”

It is impossible for words to do justice to the TCA Retreat experience. It was a wonder filled adventure of transformational energy that encompassed and surrounded each of us. The retreat was done in an atmosphere of love that was extremely empowering. It was about:

Community and friendship
Reflection and experiencing
Inspiration and commitment
Receiving and sharing
Insight and memories

I am thankful to have been one of the participants. I now feel more inspired and committed to making my coaching career a reality. The transformational exercises and coaching were helpful and truly transformational. I was able to release blocks and connect with a community of like-minded people.

I would definitely recommend this retreat to others. It will help you formulate and articulate how you will become the coach you want to be. I am extremely thankful that I was able to attend.
