"I found out how to love myself again"

I would recommend this for any person who is wanting to work on themselves. For anyone who is searching for more out of their life, or in their life. Eve's TCA retreat was so healing for me. Things that I had been keeping locked up inside were cracked wide open. Questions that I had been asking myself for so long were finally answered in huge "aha" moments. I loved the feeling of family and community that was developed in such a short time, and also being surrounded by so many like-minded people. I now feel like a strong, confident and powerful woman who could do anything! I found out how to love myself again.

"It Was Life-Changing for Me"

Eve creates a beautiful environment in her trainings where people from around the world feel connected and empowered. I'm so grateful because it was life changing for me. At the end of the retreat, I had a big smile on my face knowing that thanks to Eve I can live a life of love, compassion and abundance.

"Helped Increase My Coaching Confidence"

The TCA Retreat has been a great time to connect with myself, the other participants and receive special support from Eve. Before the retreat, I was running out of time to concentrate on my business and felt pulled in all directions. By the end of the retreat I felt calmer and inspired. I recommend it to others because it gives you more inspiration, a safe place to practice, allows time for reflection and additional time for Eve to share her expertise with us. Practicing coaching live during the retreat one on one is a real added value and helped me increase my confidence in coaching.

"I came home a forever changed woman"

Everyone should try to attend any TCA Live Retreat! I guarantee you will be forever changed, too! Practice coaching coaching was so valuable within a group setting. All of the very powerful processes we did together went deep and shifted everyone. The friends I made will be life-long. And, last but absolutely not least, I experienced Eve Agee in person. Eve, you are the real deal! Your embodied presence blows me away and is such a great model for me going forward. Your love for your work is truly beautiful to witness and your love for all of us is undeniable. Thank you, Eve, from the bottom of my heart!

Working with Eve and the TCA community at this retreat has been an enormous gift. Eve's loving nature and truly amazing knowledge and skills, combined with one of the most amazing communities of people I've ever met helped me get back to my center, heal, feel hope and restoration, and find energy and direction to take my next step. Thank you Eve!

"Know In My Heart I Can Begin NOW"

Before attending TCA Retreat I didn't believe I was 100% ready yet to coach women one on one. That has now changed and I know in my heart that I am doing my future clients a disservice by waiting and I can begin NOW to support and share with women the tools to move them forward in life so they too can be at ease with all that life sends their way!

Wendy Woodworth, Calgary, Canada

"Best Thing I've Done For Myself!"

Coming to the Transform Coaching Academy Live Retreat has been the best thing I have done for myself in a very long time. What a gift. I am already looking forward to Eve's TCA Retreat next year. It is not to be missed! It was the perfect mix of skills practice, business building and healing work in a beautiful and supportive setting. Eve is a truly special woman with extraordinary knowledge, intuition, compassion and dedication to healing others.

"I'm So Glad I Did It!"

It was amazing to be in a circle of such wonderful, uplifting women and creators and to be led by the amazing, heart-guided Eve, who shows how powerful leadership can be graceful, authentic, gentle and joyful! I experienced incredible support and huge joy in sharing space and energy with this group, and loved the various ways we were able to meet ourselves and each other on a deep level. I highly recommend jumping into this great opportunity to connect in person with an inspiring, light-filled community and with the radiant and truly empowering Eve. This is a place where you'll be encouraged to let your light shine and see it reflected in radiance all around you! A treasure!

"Lifelong Friendships Formed"

The TCA Retreat felt like a gift being offered just for me and I am so glad I accepted it. I have benefited more than I could have imagined. I would absolutely recommend this retreat to others!! This invaluable uplifting intensive cuts to the heart of our fears around being coaches. Had I not joined the retreat, I would have missed out on a year's worth of Inspiration and guidance! Suddenly you are face to face with the spirit of each person who has come here to liberate themselves and each other. Lifelong friendships formed. It is very safe and easy. Eve's training and processes at the retreat dig deeper and directly to the core of the work that is covered in the program. Because of the retreat, I am exactly where I am supposed to be. It is liberating and affirming, and it has been a lesson in self-care and honoring the soul!

Erin Taylor, New York, USA

"Now I'm 100% Committed to Coaching"

I completely recommend the TCA Retreat. I have done MANY workshops and retreats. Eve puts it all together into a beautiful marriage of mind body and spirit. Her holistic approach addressed dealing with blocks as well as the concrete tasks of putting together our coaching packages. She used all kinds of processes to bring out our creative power. Before the retreat, I was very excited but also overwhelmed with how to offer my coaching. Now I am committed 100% to coaching and am ready to really 'do it' – I've been conceptualizing for too long so the TCA Retreat has been wonderfully liberating and energizing!

Valeriana Pasqua-Masback, New York, USA

"Crown Jewel of Retreats"

I am a bit of a retreat junkie and the Transform Coaching Academy Retreat is a crown jewel of retreats. These were some of the most nourishing days I have ever spent, physically, spiritually and emotionally. It brought everything to light and made things very real. It helped me start to bring my healing work and spiritual loves into a cohesive whole. Some experiences are immeasurable by time or money. Make the time and invest in yourself. This retreat is an experience that will enrich your life on every level.

Karen Amanda Nantes, New York, USA

"Honestly Transformational, Supportive & Nurturing"

I would recommend this retreat because it is honestly transformational, supportive and so incredibly nurturing. It also greatly deepened my understanding of the coaching processes while increasing my commitment to getting started on my coaching path. It was extremely helpful to have the other students here to ask questions pertaining to their experiences. There was a lot of synchronicity and what I consider to be signs that I am on my true path. During the retreat, something big shifted for me. After the first day of the retreat, I woke up very early and journaled. It was like my old, negative tapes had finally stopped playing. I felt on my game, ready to commit, confident and beautiful.

Laura Offermann, Iowa, USA

"Priceless...Wealth of Wonderful People"

The TCA Retreat gave me hope for a future career that would be rich, satisfying and financially beneficial. The wealth of wonderful people who all support and come to love one another is priceless. The joy of community shared with my tribe is immeasurable. The benefits will live on long beyond this great weekend. Eve was generous in her knowledge and expertise and really knew where to focus in on an individual's struggles to help overcome them. I really appreciated the deep breathing work that we focused on.

"Helped Increase My Coaching Confidence"

The retreat felt so deep and the connections I've formed, well, feel immense. I know I am supported. I found a direction that was in the making, but having it mirrored back to me with so many beautiful souls, how could I not? I'm looking forward to see how it manifests in my life over the next little bit. I'm taking the beauty of this natural community home to propel and support me on my coaching journey.

Kelley Wilks, New Mexico, USA

"Gave Me Clarity & Vision"

This retreat helped give me clarity for my coaching vision and made my goals seem much more accessible.
